ICF International Awarded Contracts In Excess of $40 Million

October 20, 2008

Firm to Provide Training and Technical Assistance Services to Head Start Program for the Department of Health and Human Services

FAIRFAX, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

ICF International (NASDAQ:ICFI) announced today that its subsidiary, ICF Incorporated, LLC, was awarded a number of new contracts to provide state-based training and technical assistance services to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), Administration for Children and Families (ACF), Office of Head Start and its grantees. The HHS contracts are part of a larger agency effort to provide continuous improvement for Head Start and Early Head Start grantees' services to children and families. By establishing Head Start Training and Technical Assistance Offices in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico, Head Start is enhancing collaboration across all early education programs within a state.

As of this press release, awards have not yet been made in all states. ICF has so far received awards with a combined total value in excess of $40 million. The five-year agreements are set to begin in October 2008.

"For the past five years, ICF has provided Head Start support to ACF," said Barbara Rudin, ICF senior vice president. "The agency's new model will enable us to work collaboratively with other early education programs within states to provide enhanced overall support to its Head Start program, its grantees, and the early childhood education community."

About ICF International

ICF International (NASDAQ:ICFI) partners with government and commercial clients to deliver consulting services and technology solutions in the energy, climate change, environment, transportation, social programs, health, defense, and emergency management markets. The firm combines passion for its work with industry expertise and innovative analytics to produce compelling results throughout the entire program life cycle, from analysis and design through implementation and improvement. Since 1969, ICF has been serving government at all levels, major corporations, and multilateral institutions. More than 3,000 employees serve these clients worldwide. ICF's Web site is www.icfi.com.

Caution Concerning Forward-looking Statements

This document may contain "forward-looking statements" as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995--that is, statements related to future--not past--events, plans, and prospects. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that may cause our actual results, levels of activity, performance, or achievements to be materially different from any future results, levels of activity, performance, or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. In some cases, you can identify these statements by forward-looking words such as "guidance," "anticipate," "believe," "could," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "plan," "potential," "seek," "should," "will," "would," or similar words. You should read statements that contain these words carefully because they discuss our future expectations, contain projections of our future results of operations or of our financial position, or state other forward-looking information, and are subject to factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated. For ICF, particular uncertainties that could adversely or positively affect the Company's future results include but are not limited to: risks related to the government contracting industry, including the timely approval of government budgets, changes in client spending priorities, and the results of government audits and investigations; risks related to our business, including our dependence on contracts with U.S. Federal Government agencies and departments and the State of Louisiana; continued good relations with these and other customers; success in competitive bidding on recompete and new contracts; performance by ICF and its subcontractors under our contract with the State of Louisiana, Office of Community Development, including but not limited to the risks of failure to achieve certain levels of program activities, termination, or material modification of the contract, and political uncertainties relating to The Road Home program; uncertainties as to whether revenues corresponding to the Company's contract backlog will actually be received; the future of the energy sector of the global economy; our ability to attract and retain management and staff; strategic actions, including attempts to expand our service offerings and client base, the ability to make acquisitions, and the performance and future integration of acquired businesses; risks associated with operations outside the United States, including but not limited to international, regional, and national economic conditions, including the effects of terrorist activities, war, and currency fluctuations; and other risks and uncertainties disclosed in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These uncertainties may cause ICF's actual future results to be materially different than those expressed in the Company's forward-looking statements. ICF does not undertake to update its forward-looking statements.

Source: ICF International

ICF International
Lindsey Litton, +1 571-265-1472
llitton@icfi.com