

ICF International Wins $12 Million Energy Efficiency Contract with Pepco Holdings, Inc.

January 9, 2012

FAIRFAX, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 9, 2012-- ICF International (NASDAQ:ICFI), a leading provider of consulting services and technology solutions to government and commercial clients, has been awarded a new contract to support the energy efficiency portfolio for Pepco Holdings, Inc., subsidiaries Pepco and Delmarva Power. The contract has a value of $12 million and a term of 40 months.

Through this contract, ICF will promote increased energy efficiency in the residential consumer market. Efforts will include programs for lighting and appliances, heating and cooling, new construction, home energy audits, and home performance. ICF will educate homeowners, HVAC and home improvement trade allies, home builders, and various stakeholders regarding the energy savings benefits and value of ENERGY STAR and higher energy efficiency standards.

"Residential energy efficiency is an important part of our client's annual energy savings goals," said Mike Mernick, senior vice president for ICF International. "ICF's proven approach to comprehensively developing the market drives customer participation while simultaneously building the local technical infrastructure to help deliver program services. This new work builds on ICF's highly successful performance and award-winning program delivery in the mid-Atlantic region."

ICF offers results and solutions to a broad range of clients in the energy industry worldwide. ICF has advised both private and public sector clients in all facets of the energy industry for more than 30 years and is a leader in designing and implementing effective and innovative strategies.

ICF clients include investor-owned and public utilities, power developers, regulated transmission and distribution companies, unregulated enterprises, municipal power authorities, energy traders and marketers, oil and gas exploration and production companies, gas transmission companies, pipeline developers, local distribution companies, industry associations, investors, financial institutions, law firms, and regulators.
