

ICF International Team Awarded Multiple-Award Contract for U.S. Trade and Development Agency $50 Million IDIQ

May 1, 2014 7:00 AM ET

FAIRFAX, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--May 1, 2014-- ICF International (NASDAQ:ICFI), a leading provider of consulting services and technology solutions to government and commercial clients, has been awarded a new multiple-award Indefinite Delivery Indefinite Quantity (IDIQ) contract by the U.S. Trade and Development Agency (USTDA) to provide a wide range of energy-related support services. The contract has a combined ceiling of $50 million for all contracts awarded and a term of five years.

ICF will support USTDA with energy sector project planning services in various subsection areas, including power generation, energy efficiency, alternative fuels, transmission and distribution, fossil resource development, and other energy. Specifically, ICF will provide assistance with feasibility studies, technical assistance, project advisory and preparation activities, sector planning missions, and definitional missions that support project planning. The IDIQ enables USTDA to respond quickly to U.S. and global business interests and needs in the energy sector.

“ICF has a successful history of working with USTDA to support its mission of creating U.S. jobs through the export of U.S. goods and services in emerging economies. We are excited to be part of USTDA’s first-ever energy IDIQ, and are looking forward to working with USTDA in pushing energy projects from inception to implementation across the globe,” said Eric Boyle, vice president for ICF International.
